During my tenure, I have been truly blessed to have a great working relationship with the people I serve! Thanks to your help, cooperation, and suggestions, we have seen many accomplishments! It's a partnership that depends upon your involvement, so that I might continue using your ideas to better serve our southern Indiana district. Please remember: I work for you, and with you being my boss, I need your input. This survey is important, so please take a few minutes to participate.

Rep. Denbo

With a new governor and several new legislative leaders, there were a lot of changes in the now-completed long legislative session. With the short session starting in January, we will be dealing with many critical issues that are important to you. On several of these issues, I already know what you would have me do and will continue my role, just as I always have in the past. Such issues include: voting "no" to tax increases; working to lower property taxes; fighting against ridiculous gun-control bills; providing proper educational funding; and bringing further economic development to our communities.

Please keep contact—not only by answering the questions in this survey—but also, by contacting my office with other concerns. As the session progresses, I will be even more reliant upon your suggestions and advice. In closing, I thank you for the tremendous cooperation of the past and look forward to a continuance in 2006.

May God be with you,

Denbo
